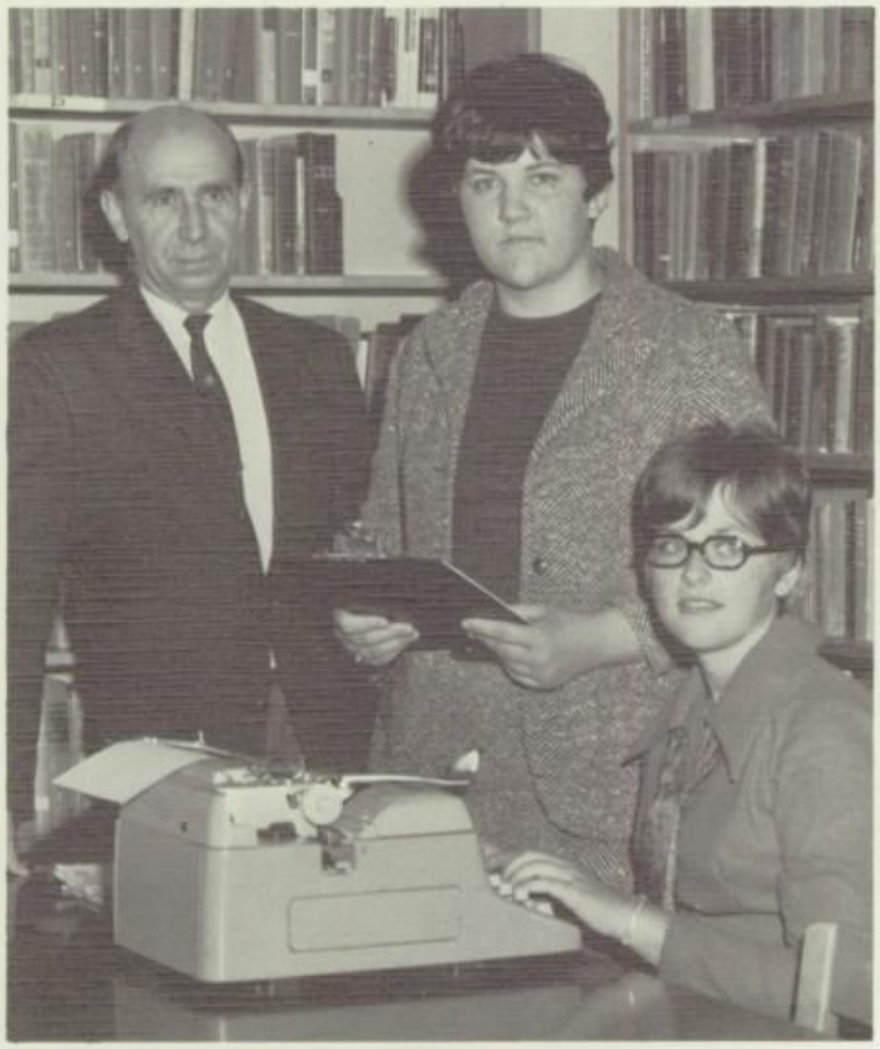
LINCOLNWOOD HERITAGE TRAIL

THE LINCOLNWOOD LEGEND

FOREWORD

The growth of knowledge consists of more than the classwork completed every day at Lincolnwood. Experience teaches many lessons, and the halls of Lincolnwood have witnessed our experiences from freshmen to seniors. Thus, hopefully, a consummation of our knowledge received both in and out of class is shown in the following pages.

YEARBOOK STAFF



Mr. Schroeder, Donna Wagahoff, Mary Jean Crum.

Top to Bottom: Tom Davis, Merle McFarlin, Carl Mayer, Merrie Lynn Arter, Debby Lubben, Sharon Zalar, Margaret Watson.

Top to Bottom: Joyce Arter, Linda Krager, Karen Smith, Faye Christopher, Wanda Elvidge, Linda Beeler, Owen Sallee.

DEDICATION

The senior class is proud to dedicate the 1970 Lincolnwood Legend to Jerry Arter, a member of our class who died as the result of leukemia. We have missed Jerry both at school and elsewhere, and we remember him not only as a good student but as a fine person. Though he cannot receive a diploma he always will be a part of our class.

Thus, in memory of your courageous acceptance of death, for your spirit while battling a deadly disease, and for your presence in our class, Jerry, we dedicate our 1970 yearbook to you.

CLOSEUP SEVENTY

Most days at LHS are filled with many different activities. As principal, Mr. Crum is always a part of these activities. He always has time for school projects and meetings as well as for the individual student.

In appreciation for all the ways you have benefited the student body at LHS, Mr. Crum, the class of 1970 thanks you with this Closeup.

Giving tests--is that your favorite pastime Mrs. Shaw?

We're always so busy!

Santa, haven't we seen you somewhere before?

OK, we'll do this, but nothing else!!

And the 1969 king and queen are who?

Next in importance to the prom is the annual Student Council Christmas Dance. December 20th was the day chosen to start off winter fun. "Santa's Workshop" provided a merry theme for the dancers, who enjoyed the sounds of the Inner Sanctum. The evening came to a close as the retiring king and queen, Dean Fuchs and Tomi Taylor, made way for 1969's new court: Count Doug Hendricks, Countess Mary Pat Aherin; Duke Kenny Millburg, Duchess Pam Wernsing; Prince Leo Millburg, Princess Diane Weitekamp; King Larry Ziegler and Queen Barb DeWerff.

May old acquaintance be forgot . . .
